

Community Conflict Resolution Services Halton

Who We are?

- CCRS Halton has been serving the Halton Region since 2010 (Charity number: 821604220 RR0001)
- Our VISION is to develop a healthier community through ADR training and mediation services
- Our MISSION is to teach our community to peacefully resolve differences and build better relationships
- Our 5-person Board guides a roster of 6 mediators on the needs of our community and partners

What We offer?

- Free and inclusive mediation services to all Halton Region members and organizations
- Consultation on conflict management methods and processes
- Alternative dispute resolution and restorative justice education sessions

Why Us?

Build Peace

We help our community resolve disputes in a mutually beneficial manner

Build Relationships

We promote healthier partnerships through positive dialogue and collaboration

Build Community

We assist you with managing conflict so that YOU can focus on governance

How can YOU help CCRS Halton?

- Funding allows us to keep our mediation services inclusive and FREE for all
- Resources like community spaces help us host our meetings, mediation and training sessions
- Share information and collaborate on issues affecting our neighbourhoods

The VALUE of CCRS Halton

Helping Those in Need

Healthier Neighbourhoods

Safe, Diverse and Welcoming Community

Well Served Citizens